We depart from your hotel to the Port of Los Cristianos, taking a ferry to San Sebastián de La Gomera.

Once in La Gomera, we will take the southern route and make a brief stop next to the Roque de Agando, a curious rock formation typical of the island. In La Gomera, we explore the Garajonay National Park, a UNESCO World Heritage Site, with a walk through lush laurel forests. After a relaxing lunch at Las Rosas Restaurant, where you can taste the exquisite gastronomy of Gomera, we discover the Silbo Gomero language, a unique whistled language on the island. Passing through picturesque towns like Hermigua and Agulo, we return to San Sebastián, exploring its historic sites, including the Torre del Conde and the church of Our Lady of the Assumption. Finally, we return to the Port of Los Cristianos by ferry.
